WELCOME TO SACRAMENTO

TO THE MEDIA: Welcome to the 40th season of Kings basketball in Sacramento and to Golden 1 Center. The Kings Media Relations department will do everything possible to assist in your coverage during the 2024-25 NBA Season. If we can ever be of assistance, please do not hesitate to contact us.

2024-25 SACRAMENTO KINGS MEDIA GUIDELINES

Consistent with NBA guidance, the following guidelines apply for credentialed media covering Kings home games during the 2024-25 season. All policies are subject to change.

Media Credentialing

Media will be credentialed for games under the following policy. A Tier 1 level has been created for qualifying outlets. Media are required to meet "Tier 1" qualifications in order to have such access. Media must reach out to Kings Media Relations to RSVP or request credentials for homes games at least 48 hours prior to each game.

Tier 1 Criteria:

a) Local media outlets that regularly cover the team either by traveling consistently (at least 50 percent of road games) and/or attending the majority of team games and practices in the home market (at least 50 percent of each).

b) National media outlets that cover the league on a consistent basis by traveling to a minimum of 25 games.

c) Select international media outlets and broadcast partners designated by the league office for each game.

d) Outlets that are working on a specific project in which the team or league determines that qualifying as Tier 1 is necessary to the success of the project.

e) To qualify as Tier 1, an outlet must create original content and have a standard editorial process in which the credentialed reporters are governed.

For clarity, even if a media member's outlet qualifies for Tier 1, please note that an individual media member must have prior experience covering NBA practices or games, sufficient as determined by the NBA, in order to receive Tier 1 access.

Court Access

The court will be available to Tier 1 Media and media whose credentials have a C designating court access.

THE SACRAMENTO KINGS begin their ninth season under a group led by Owner Vivek Ranadivé. The group succeeds the Maloof family, who sold the franchise in Spring 2013.

The latest chapter in the franchise's ownership history began to take shape in April 2013 when the NBA's Relocation Committee unanimously recommended that the league's Board of Governors deny the application of the team to relocate to Seattle, Washington. The passion, will and vision that Ranadive's group expressed for the future of the Kings in Sacramento led the league's Board of Governors to unanimously approve the sale of the team on May 28, 2013.

The Maloof family had owned the team for 14 seasons after taking control of the Kings and ARCO Arena on July 1, 1999. The Maloofs succeeded Jim Thomas, who had owned the franchise since April 6, 1992.

The Maloof family's interest in purchasing the Kings, Monarchs (WNBA) and ARCO Arena originated in 1997 when they contacted Thomas regarding the availability of the teams and arena. On January 14, 1998, the Maloofs completed the purchase of a minority limited partnership in the organization's franchises and ARCO Arena. On January 15, 1999, the Maloofs subsequently purchased controlling interest, effective July 1, 1999. The NBA Board of Governors unanimously approved the ownership transfer on May 7, 1999, in New York, at which time the Board of Governors appointed Joe Maloof to the Board.

The Kings franchise made its NBA debut in 1948 as the Rochester Royals under the ownership of Les Harrison. Harrison also served as the club's head coach for the first seven seasons, and in 1951 he guided the Royals to the first and only NBA World Championship title in franchise history. The team was moved to Cincinnati in 1957, where one year later it became a public corporation. In 1966, brothers Max and Jeremy Jacobs purchased the club and maintained ownership through the team's move to Kansas City in 1972-73.

A group of 10 Kansas City-based businessmen purchased the club in 1973 for an excess of $5 million. The same group held proprietorship through May of 1982 when ownership was restructured so that only three partners remained, Leon Karosen, H. Paul Rosenberg, and Robert J. Margolin. Three months later, three New York-based businessmen joined the Kansas City ownership group.

On June 8, 1983, the Kings were sold to a local business group that is responsible for bringing NBA basketball to the Capitol City, as Joseph Benvenuti, Frank and Gregg Lukenbill, Bob A. Cook, Frank McCormick, and Stephen H. Cippa purchased the Kansas City Kings for approximately $10.5 million. In January of 1985, the group petitioned the NBA Board of Governors for permission to move the franchise to Sacramento. Nine months later, the Kings' Sacramento-era began as the club played its first-ever contest before a sold out crowd at the temporary ARCO Arena site.

LES HARRISON — BASKETBALL PIONEER

The Sacramento Kings organization pays tribute to the late Les Harrison, who passed away in December of 1997, at the age of 93. As owner, general manager, and coach, Harrison was the driving force behind the Rochester Royals in the early days of the National Basketball League (NBL). In three seasons in the NBL, Harrison led the Royals to a 99-43 record, three NBL finals, and league titles in 1946 and 1947. With the signing of Dolly King in 1946, Harrison played a role in breaking the minority barrier in professional basketball. Following the 1948-49 season, in which the Royals played in the Basketball Association of America (BAA), Harrison led the effort to merge the NBL and BAA into the current National Basketball Association (NBA). Under Harrison's direction, the Royals won the franchise's lone NBA title in 1951, defeating the New York Knickerbockers 4-3 in the Finals. Harrison posted a .620 winning percentage (295-181) in seven NBA seasons, which ranks14th all-time in the league entering this season for coaches with 100+ games. In a crowning achievement to his career, Harrison was elected to the Basketball Hall of Fame in 1979.

The Rochester National Basketball League franchise was originally nicknamed the Royals in 1946 after 15-year-old Richard Paeth's entry beat out 500 other suggestions in a name the team contest. For his winning entry, Paeth, a native of Rochester, received a $100 Victory Bond from team president/manager Les Harrison. When the franchise moved to Cincinnati before the 1957-58 campaign, the ownership decided to maintain the Royals moniker. However, when the franchise moved to Kansas City prior to the 1972-73 season, it needed a new nickname because the name Royals was already being used by the city's Major League Baseball team. Wanting to keep the "Royal" theme, the club decided on the nickname of Kings.

On May 22, 1994, the Sacramento Kings unveiled a new primary logo, home and road uniforms, and team colors. The changes marked the first major alteration from the crown and ball logo which had been the franchise's trademark since the club resided in Cincinnati

On April 26, 2016, the Kings shared a new brand identity with fans during a special preview of Golden 1 Center, the team's future downtown home currently under construction.

"When the Kings moved to Sacramento in 1985, the city was transformed. Today, we aim to do it again," said Owner and Chairman Vivek Ranadivé. "This brand kicks off a new era for our franchise as we move into the most technologicallyadvanced, most environmentally-friendly arena in the world. As Sacramento becomes the next great American city, this identity honors our heritage while moving us forward."

The new primary emblem is inspired by the Kings classic logo. It is reimagined to reflect the civic and franchise pride that has lasted and grown for a generation. Now, with a clean, modern look – a reshaped crown, refined basketball and new typeface that puts Sacramento front and center – the new identity draws from the team's ambitious beginnings and reminds our region and the world that Sacramento is undergoing a transformation.

Each of the team's new insignia are designed to connect to the elements that define the Sacramento Kings: Our City. Our Pride. Our Foundation.

The secondary logo featuring the lion, pays tribute to the unmatched pride and loyalty of the NBA's best fans. The "Sac" badge is dedicated to the bold and unwavering devotion the Kings organization has for its city. A new crown logo reflects the rich tradition of the team dating back to its origins, reminding the fanbase and the community of Sacramento that, "we are all Kings." The heralding lion crest represents leadership and strength and will be used as the Kings work to make basketball the premier global sport of the 21st century.

TEAM NOTES

- On November 8, 1988, the long awaited debut of ARCO Arena II became a reality when the Kings hosted the Seattle SuperSonics, losing 97-75 before a sold-out crowd of 16,517. NBA Commissioner David Stern participated in the dedication cermony.
- Midway through the fourth quarter of the Kings-Trail Blazers contest on December 27, 1988, Head Coach Jerry Reynolds collapsed on the sidelines. He lay unconscious for several minutes before doctors revived him and immediately transported him to Sutter Memorial Hospital for further observation. Doctors dismissed cardiac problems, diagnosing the cause of the fainting and dizziness due to a sudden postural change. Reynolds missed the following night's game in Utah, but returned to practice two days later.
- On February 20, 1989, the Kings acquired Indiana forward Wayman Tisdale and the Pacers' 1990 secondround draft choice in exchange for forward LaSalle Thompson and guard Randy Wittman.
- On May 21, 1989, Sacramento won the NBA Lottery's grand prize by receiving the first overall pick in the 1989 NBA Draft. Approximately one month later (June 27), the Kings selected 6-10 Louisville center Pervis Ellison with the No. 1 choice.

TEAM NOTES

- On August 14, 1989, guard Ricky Berry was found dead in his home from a self-inflicted gunshot wound, just months after the conclusion of a rookie campaign in which he averaged 11.0 ppg, 3.1 rpg, and 1.3 apg.
- Managing General Partner Gregg Lukenbill announced a reorganization of the club's management and basketball staff on December 19, 1990. Executive Vice President of Business Operations Rick Benner was named president of the Kings and ARCO Arena. Head Coach Jerry Reynolds assumed the position of director of player personnel and would eventually relinquish his coaching position. Bill Russell was released from his position as vice president of basketball operations.
- On January 4, 1990, NBA veteran Dick Motta, the thirdwinningest head coach in NBA history, replaced Reynolds as the Kings head coach. Reynolds compiled a 56-114 (.330) record in three stints as Kings head coach.
- Kings guard Kenny Smith finished second to Atlanta's Dominique Wilkins in the Gatorade Slam Dunk contest during NBA All-Star Weekend in Miami. Smith's appearance marked only the second time since the club moved to Sacramento in 1985 a player represented the Kings in the All-Star festivities. (Terry Tyler in '86 slam dunk contest was the first).
- The Kings made NBA history at the 1990 NBA Draft (June 27, 1990), becoming the first team to select four first-round draft choices—LaSalle forward Lionel Simmons (#7 overall), Texas guard Travis Mays (#14 overall), Temple center Duane Causwell (#18 overall) and St. Louis forward Anthony Bonner (#23 overall).

TEAM NOTES

- Kings posted a 28-54 record in 1993-94, a three-game improvement over the 1992-93 campaign (25-57).
- Sacramento finished ahead of the Los Angeles Clippers (27-55) in the Pacific Division standings, marking the first time since 1988-89 that the Kings did not finish at the bottom of their division.
- Guard Mitch Richmond became the first Kings player since Otis Birdsong in 1980-81 to earn All-NBA honors when he was voted to the second team. Richmond ranked seventh in the NBA in scoring [23.4 ppg] in the regular season, while also avearging 3.7 rpg, 4.0 apg, and 1.32 spg.
- Richmond also became the first Kings player since Nate Archibald in 1975 and the eighth in franchise history to start in an NBA All-Star Game, tallying 10 points, two rebounds, and three assists in 24 minutes for the West squad in the 44th Annual affair in Minneapolis, MN.
- Kings were stricken by the injury bug throughout the season, losing 226 player games to injury or illness, the third highest total in the NBA in 1993-94 and the second most in the Sacramento-era. The rash of injuries forced Head Coach Garry St. Jean to utilize 20 different starting combinations over the course of the season.

TEAM NOTES

- Kings registered a 39-43 regular-season record, marking the franchise's most victories in a season since 1982-83 (45-37). Sacramento finished fifth in the Pacific Division, and missed advancing to the NBA Playoffs by just one game after falling 102-89 at Denver (4/23/95) on the final day of the regular season in a winner-take-all battle for the eighth and final Western Conference Playoff berth.
- Guard Mitch Richmond earned Second-Team All-NBA honors after averaging 22.8 ppg, 4.4 rpg, 3.8 apg, and 1.11 spg. Richmond's 22.8 ppg led all guards in scoring and ranked eighth in the NBA.
- Richmond was named MVP of the 45th Annual All-Star Game in Phoenix, scoring a game-high 23 points (10-13 FG, 3-3 3pt, 0-0 FT) with four rebounds and two assists in only 22 minutes off the bench to lead the Western Conference to a 139-112 victory over the East. The 10for-13 (.769) shooting performance is the third best in All-Star history.
- Forward Brian Grant was named to the NBA's First-Team All-Rookie squad, averaging 13.2 ppg (.511 FG%), 7.5 rpg, and 1.45 bpg. Grant earned Schick Rookie of the Month honors for January after averaging 15.8 ppg (.511 FG%), 9.7 rpg, and 2.13 bpg in helping lead the Kings to a 9-6 mark.

TEAM NOTES

- Paul Westphal, in his first season as head coach of the Kings, guided Sacramento to a fifth-place finish in the Pacific Division, compiling a 25-57 regular season record.
- Rookie Tyreke Evans, selected fourth overall in the 2009 NBA Draft, averaged a team-high 20.1 ppg, 5.3 rpg, a team-leading 5.8 apg, and 1.51 spg and became the first Kings player in the Sacramento era to win the NBA Rookie of the Year award.
- Sacramento ranked 10th in the NBA in rebounding (42.6 rpg), and third in offensive rebounding (11.9 orpg).
- The Kings rallied from a third-quarter 35-point deficit to defeat the Bulls, 102-98, at Chicago on December 21, 2009. It was the largest deficit to come back from and win since the Jazz overcame a 36-point deficit to beat the Nuggets on Nov. 27, 1996.

TEAM NOTES

- Kings finished fourth in the Pacific Division, compiling a 22-44 regular season record. Keith Smart was named head coach on January 5, 2012, replacing Paul Westphal after the first seven games of the lockout-shortened season. Sacramento posted a 16-17 home record, surpassing the 11-win home total in 2010-11.
- The Kings ranked second in the NBA in offensive rebounding (13.4 orpg), fifth in steals (8.50 spg), sixth in scoring (98.8 ppg), and 10th in rebounding (42.9 rpg). It marked the third straight season in which the Kings finished in the top 3 in offensive rebounding and top 10 in rebounding.
- Rookie Isaiah Thomas was named to the 2011-12 NBA All-Rookie Second Team. Thomas was named back-toback Western Conference Rookie of the Month in February and March, becoming only the fourth Kings rookie in the Sacramento era to win the award.

- Marcus Thornton led the Kings in scoring [18.7 ppg], three-pointers made (107) and attempted (310), and free throw percentage (.865).
- DeMarcus Cousins ranked first in the NBA in offensive rebounding (4.1 orpg and 265 total offensive rebounds) and charges taken (47). His 11.0 rpg was tied with Kris Humphries for fourth in the NBA. Cousins recorded a team-high 36 double-doubles, sixth highest in the league.

TEAM NOTES

- Kings Head Coach George Karl guided the Kings to a 33-49 record (18-23 home, 15-26 road) in their 31st season in Sacramento. The 33 wins were the most since the 2007-08 team won 38.
- The Kings were ranked third in scoring (106.6 ppg), fourth in assists (24.5 apg) and fifth in steals (8.94 spg).
- With the Golden 1 Center set to open prior to the 2016-17 season, the Kings played their final game in Sleep Train Arena, defeating the Oklahoma City Thunder, 114-112, on April 9, 2016.
- The 2015-16 Kings set new Sacramento-era records in three-point field goals made (660) and attempted (1,839) and two-point field goal percentage (.500).
- The Kings ended a 14-game losing streak to the Thunder in Oklahoma City with a 116-104 win on Jan. 4, 2016, and a 22-game losing streak to the Mavericks in Dallas thanks to a 104-101 decision on March 3, 2016.
- An All-Star Game appearance and an All-NBA Second Team nod for the second straight season, DeMarcus Cousins posted career-high averages in scoring (26.9 ppg), steals (1.55 spg) and minutes (34.6 mpg) while also averaging 11.5 rpg, 3.3 apg, 1.4 bpg. Among NBA leaders, Cousins ranked fourth in scoring, fifth in rebounding, sixth in double-doubles (47) and led all players in personal fouls drawn (8.9). Cousins recorded a careerhigh 56 points to set a new Sleep Train Arena record and a Sacramento-era record for most points in a game in a double-overtime loss to the Hornets on Jan. 25, 2016.
- Rajon Rondo averaged a league-leading 11.7 apg, becoming the first Kings player since Nate Archibald (1972-73, 11.4 apg) to lead the NBA in assists per game. With six triple-doubles during the 2015-16 season, Rondo established a new Sacramento-era single-season record.
- Willie Cauley-Stein was named to the 2015-16 NBA All-Rookie Second Team after averaging 7.0 ppg (.563 FG%, .648 FT%), 5.3 rpg, 1.00 bpg and 21.4 mpg in 66 contests, of which he started 39.

TEAM NOTES

- Kings Head Coach Dave Joerger led the Kings to a 27-55 record (14-27 home, 13-28 road) in his second season as the team's head coach and the Kings' 33rd season in Sacramento. Joerger picked up his 200th career win as a head coach on Mar. 9 versus Orlando.
- The Kings made the second most buzzer beaters this season tied with the Houston Rockets with five as De'Aaron Fox (11/9, 1/25) and Bogdan Bogdanovic (11/27, 4/6) each made two while Skal Labisiere knocked down one of his own (3/4).
- On February 8, 2018, the Sacramento Kings made two deadline day trade deals. In a trade with the Cavaliers, the Kings acquired Iman Shumpert and Joe Johnson as well as a 2020 second-round draft pick, the rights to Dimitrios Agravanis and cash considerations in exchange for guard George Hill and the rights to center Arturas Gudaitis. In the second deal with Toronto, Sacramento swapped forward Bruno Caboclo for guard Malachi Richardson.
- When holding opponents to under 100 points, Sacramento finished the season with a record of 18-7.

- The Kings ended the season undefeated in overtime after the team was able to win all three games that went past regulation.
- Bogdan Bogdanovic earned 2017-18 All-Rookie Second Team honors after averaging 11.8 ppg (.446 FG%, .392 3pt%, .840 FT%), 2.9 rpg, 3.3 apg, 0.9 spg and 27.9 mpg in 78 games, 52 of which he started.
- The Kings snapped a six-game skid to the Miami Heat as well as a 16-game road losing streak in Miami after defeating the Heat, 89-88, on Jan. 25, 2018. Sacramento went on to beat the Heat, 123-119, in overtime at the Golden 1 Center on Mar. 14, 2018 marking the first season since 2001-02 that the Kings swept the Heat.
- The Kings ended an eight-game road losing streak to the Warriors on Nov. 27, 2017. Sacramento would go on to also win the second road game the series on Mar. 16, 2018 marking the first time the team won both games in Oakland in the same year since the 2002-03 season. Over the past five seasons, only two others teams have knocked off the Warriors twice at Oracle Arena in the same season. The Denver Nuggets and San Antonio Spurs both won two contests in Oakland during the 2013-14 season

TEAM NOTES

- The Kings finished the 2019-20 season with a record of 31-41 as they went 3-5 during the eight seeding games after being one of 22 teams invited to resume play during the 2020 NBA Restart in Orlando, FL.
- Sacramento ended the season ranked Top-10 in the NBA in the following categories: 10th in total 3-point field goals (914), ninth in points off turnovers (17.4) fifth in opponent fast break points (12.1) and fourth in opponent second chance points (11.9) per game.
- Guard De'Aaron Fox ranked 21st in points [21.1], 15th in assists (6.8) and 16th in steals (1.5) per game Guard Buddy Hield ranked second in total 3s [271] and third in 3s per game (3.8). Forward Nemanja Bjelica shot .419% from beyond the arc for the eighth highest 3-point field goal percentage in the NBA during the 2019-20 season.
- Guard Buddy Hield finished with 271 3-pointers, his second straight season with 270 making him only the third player to complete the feat (Stephen Curry, 2014-17 and James Harden, 2018-20).
- Guard De'Aaron Fox is the second Kings player along with Nate Archibald (1974-75, 1975-76) to

- average at least 21.0 points, 6.5 assists and 1.5 steals per game in a season. Fox joined Archibald as the only players to average 17.0 points, 6.5 assists and 1.5 steals in consecutive seasons.
- The Kings made at least 20 3s in five games, including a franchise best 21 3-pointers on three occasions, including Jan. 30 at the LA Clippers, Mar. 7 at the Portland Trail Blazers and at the Los Angles Lakers on Aug 13. Sacramento made 15 3s in the first half at LAC, a franchise record as the Kings made nine 3s in a quarter in four games this season, a franchise best, in all three of these games as well as against the Mavericks on Aug. 4.
- On Jan. 27, the Kings were down by as many as 27 points to the Timberwolves, including a 22-point deficit with less than six minutes to go. Sacramento was also down by as many as 17 with less than three minutes and 12 points with 1:15 or less in the game. The Kings would go on to win the game as they were the only team over the last 20 seasons to win after being down by 20+ points with six minutes or less in the game according to ESB. According to ESPN Stats & Info, the Kings were the first team to win a game since the 1996-97 season after trailing by 17 or more with three minutes or less (teams were previously 0-8,378).

The 6-1, 180 guard posted his best season in 1972-73, averaging a career-best 34.0 ppg and 11.4 apg, becoming the only player in NBA history to lead the league in both scoring and assists. Archibald was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1991.

MITCH RICHMOND: Mitch Richmond became the first player in Sacramento-era history to have his jersey retired (December 5, 2003). Richmond ranks among the top five in franchise history in points, field goals made and attempted, free throws made and attempted, free throw percentage, steals, three-pointers made and attempted, and three-point field goal percentage. He became the first Sacramento King to be named to the All-Star Game, and earned the All-Star MVP award in 1995 after tallying 23 points in 22 minutes off the bench. Also while with Sacramento, Richmond represented the United States in the 1996 Olympics, winning a gold medal. On August 8, 2014, Richmond was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame.

CHRIS WEBBER: One of the most talented forwards to ever don a Kings jersey, Chris Webber helped the Kings reach the NBA Playoffs in six straight seasons (1998-99 - 2003-04), earn two back-to-back Pacific Division titles (2001-02, 2002-03) and record a franchise record 61 regular season wins in 2001-02. Acquired from Washington in exchange for Mitch Richmond and Otis Thorpe on May 14, 1998, Webber recorded 51 points and 26 rebounds on January 5, 2001 versus Indiana, both Sacramento-era single-game records. As a King, Webber was a four-time NBA All-Star and a five-time All-NBA Team selection. He averaged 23.5 ppg, 10.6 rpg, 4.8 apg, 1.51 spg and 1.47 bpg in 377 games with Sacramento. His jersey was lifted to the rafters on February 6, 2009 (Kings vs. Utah).

6TH MAN (THE FANS): The No. 6 jersey was retired to acknowledge the support of the Kings fans. The Kings have two of the highest consecutive sellout streaks in NBA history. A sellout streak of 497 games still stands as the fourth-longest sellout streak in NBA history. The milestone streak began on opening night in 1985, the first season the Kings played in Sacramento, and ended after the second game of the 1997-98 season. From November 26, 1999, to April 18, 2007, the Kings sold out 354 straight home contests, ranking eighth on the NBA's all-time sellout list. The team sold out every home game in the Golden 1 Center's opening season.

BOBBY DAVIES: Bobby Davies, known as the Harrisburg Houdini, played all 10 of his NBA seasons with the Rochester Royals (1945-46 - 1954-55). His two free throws in the final 40 seconds of regulation broke a 75-75 tie in the seventh and deciding game of the 1951 NBA Finals against New York, helping give the franchise its first and only NBA Championship. The four-time All-Star averaged 16.2 ppg, 2.9 rpg, and 6.0 apg in his best statistical season in 1951-52. A 6-1, 175 guard, Davies was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1969.

MAURICE STOKES: The 6-7, 240 forward played all three of his seasons for the franchise, playing his first two seasons with Rochester (1955-56 - 1956-57) and his last with Cincinnati (1957-58). In his first season, Stokes was named NBA Rookie of the Year and was named to the All-NBA Second Team after posting team-highs of 16.8 ppg (11th in NBA), 16.3 rpg (2nd in NBA), and 4.9 apg (9th in NBA). An All-Star in all three seasons, Stokes averaged 16.4 ppg, 17.3 rpg, and 5.3 apg in 202 career games. His brillant career was cut short when he was diagnosed with post-traumatic encephalopathy (brain injury damaging motor-control center) after a fall suffered three days earlier in a game against the Minneapolis Lakers (3/12/58).

OSCAR ROBERTSON: Known as the Big 0, Oscar Robertson displayed an uncanny all-around game, finishing his 12-year NBA career with 25.7 ppg, 7.5 rpg, and 9.5 apg in 1,040 career games. He played 10 of his 14 NBA seasons with the Cincinnati Royals. His best season came in 1961-62 when the 6-5, 210 guard became the first player in NBA history to average a triple double for a season - 30.8 ppg, 12.5 rpg, 11.4 apg. He averaged 30 or more points in six of his first seven seasons in the league and 10 or more assists in five of his first seven seasons. Robertson, who led the league in assists in six seasons, ranks among the NBA's all-time leaders in scoring (10th), assists (6th), and points (12th). The 12-time All-Star was inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame in 1979.

PEJA STOJAKOVIC: Drafted by the Kings in the first round (14th overall) of the 1996 NBA Draft, Peja Stojakovic went on to play 13 NBA seasons, eight with Sacramento, and finished his career as a three-time NBA All-Star, NBA Champion (2011 Dallas Mavericks) and the Kings' franchise leader in three-pointers made (1,070) and attempted (2,687) and free throw percentage (.893). He ranks in the top 10 in NBA history in several categories, including fifth in career free throw percentage (.895), 18th in three-pointers made (1,760), and tied for eighth with Steve Nash in playoff free throw percentage (.900). His #16 jersey was retired on December 16, 2014, during halftime of the Kings-Thunder game.

VLADE DIVAC: Known for his craftiness on the court and his generosity off of it, Vlade Divac signed with the Kings as a free agent on January 22, 1999. Divac helped the Kings reach the NBA Playoffs in six straight seasons (1998-99 - 2003-04) while capturing two back-to-back Pacific Division titles (2001-02, 2002-03) and a franchise record 61 regular season wins in 2001-02. An All-Star in 2001, Divac played six of his 16 NBA seasons with the Kings, averaging 13.2 ppg, 7.8 rpg, 3.7 apg and 1.15 bpg in 454 games with Sacramento. He is one of 15 players in NBA history to amass 13,000 points, 9,000 rebounds and 1,500 blocks in a career. His jersey was retired on March 31, 2009 (Kings vs. New Orleans).

JACK TWYMAN: A 6-6 guard from Cincinnati, Jack Twyman played all 11 of his NBA seasons with the Kings franchise, two coming in Rochester (1955-56 and 1956-57) and the other nine seasons (1957-58 - 1965-66) in his hometown. Twyman averaged 14 or more points in his first 10 seasons and averaged 31.2 ppg, 8.9 rpg, and 3.5 apg during the 1959-60 regular season. In 1958-59, Twyman ranked second in the league in scoring, posting a 25.8 scoring average. Twyman twice scored 50 or more points in his career, including a 59-point performance versus Minneapolis (1/15/60), which still remains as the Kings' franchise single-game scoring record. Among franchise career leaders, Twyman ranks second in points (15,840), field goals made (6,237) and attempted (13,873), and free throws made (3,366) and attempted (4,325). The Hall of Fame inducted the six-time All-Star guard in 1982.

SAM LACEY: Sam Lacey, a 6-10, 235 pound forward out of New Mexico State, played 11 of his 13 NBA seasons with the Kings franchise. The first selection of the Royals in the 1970 NBA Draft, Lacey averaged a double-double in points and rebounds in his first six seasons in the league. Lacey stands as the franchise leader in games played (888) and rebounds (9,353). He ranks in second in minutes played (29,991), fifth in points (9,895) and fourth in field goals made (4,101) and field goals attempted (9,280).

The Sacramento Kings' lone franchise NBA World Championship came in 1951 when the then-Rochester Royals defeated the New York Knickerbockers in seven games. Following is the game story and box score of the Royals' thrilling 79-75 Game 7 victory over the Knickerbockers as it appeared in the New York Times.

By Leonard Koppett

ROCHESTER, N.Y., April 21 — Proving once again that free throws are more important than field goals, the Rochester Royals won the National Basketball Association championship before 4,200 spectators at the arena tonight by beating the New York Knickerbockers, 79 to 75, in the seventh game of the final play-off series. The Royals had won the first three games, the Knicks the next three.

Just how completely dependent Rochester's victory was on its foul line steadiness is clear in the chronology and statistics of the game. Bob Davies broke a 75-all tie with forty-four seconds to play when he sank two free throws after being fouled by Dick McGuire while driving to the basket; and in all, the Royals made twenty-nine out of thirty-seven free-throw attempts while New York sank only seventeen out of twenty-five. The Knicks had four more baskets, twenty-nine to twenty-five.

The fouls brought about New York's defeat in another way, too. Both its centers, Nat Clifton and Connie Simmons, fouled out in the last quarter, when the Knicks took the lead for the first time after trailing by as much as fourteen points in the first half. Meanwhile Arnie Risen, Rochester's center who took top-scoring honors with 24 points and scored the deciding basket before Davies made his free throws, committed his fourth foul twenty-two minutes before the game ended and played unpenalized the rest of the way.

Clifton, Simmons Foul Out

With Clifton and Simmons out, the Knicks were unable to control the jump balls that followed each foul in the last three minutes, so that their doom was really sealed when Risen made his last basket. New York was ahead, 74 to 72, when Simmons fouled out with two minutes left. Risen made the toss, then jumped against Ernie Vandeweghe and, when Rochester got possession, Arnie's hook shot put the Royals ahead, 75 to 74. Boryla tied it up a moment later but Rochester then froze the ball until Davies drove in.

Before the final minutes, the Knickerbockers' made another of their typical comebacks that marked their play all season long. The most "overtime" club in the league, they qualified for the final by coming from behind in their final game against Syracuse, and, after losing the first three to Rochester, trailed in each of the three games they won.

Tonight, trying to perform the ultimate in comebacks, they started by falling behind, 13 to 3. By the end of the first quarter they were up to 22 to 16, but a few minutes later Rochester led, 32 to 18. The Knicks battled back to within four points but trailed, 40 to 36, at halftime.

Knicks Finally Take Lead

In the third quarter they climbed to within three, then two, and were behind, 62 to 60, entering the last quarter. They finally achieved a 69-all tie midway through the period and took the lead for the first time, 71 to 70, with four minutes to go. Both times Gallatin converted under-the-basket feeds from McGuire

McGuire added a foul half a minute later and the teams alternated free throws until Simmons fouled out against Risen. Rochester's final basket, with two seconds left, was a lay-up by Coleman after a successful freeze had settled matters.

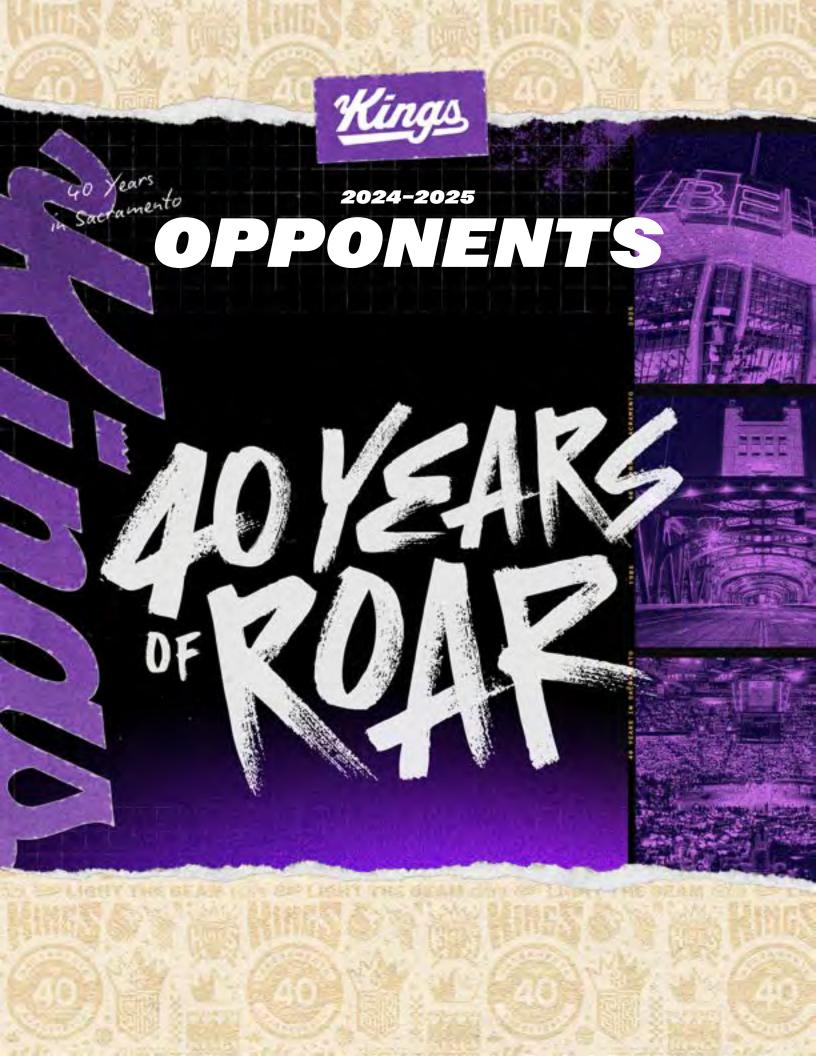

Lou Eisenstein and Stan Stutz, the officials, charged the Knicks with thirty-two personals and the Royals with twenty-two. Splitting each team's total evenly between the two halves. Very few fouls were called against Rochester, however, in the play under the boards, where the Royals emerged with a 48-to-41 edge in rebounds. Clifton's fifth personal was particularly unfortunate for the Knicks, since it came while Rochester was holding the ball at mid-court. He was called for bumping Risen while moving into position. A minute and a half later he fouled out.

Coaches Voice No Complaints

No complaints were voiced about the officials, however, either by Knick coach, Joe Lapchick, or Rochester coach, Les Harrison, who, after Rochester's loss in New York Wednesday, found Eisenstein unsatisfactory and asked that he be replaced for tonight's game.

By their victory, the Royals earned $7,500 to add to their previous winnings and wound up with $13,250 in play-off money to divide up. The Knicks finished with $2,500 less and the satisfaction-disappointment of one of basketball's greatest near-misses.

2023-24 YEAR IN REVIEW

SIXTH INSTALLMENT OF TEAM UP FOR CHANGE

In 2024, the Sacramento Kings upheld their commitment to social justice with the sixth installment of Team Up for Change event, "Mindful Hustle," continuing their award-winning initiative launched in 2018 with the Milwaukee Bucks. This year's program, attended by over 50 local youth, centered on mental health awareness and entrepreneurial opportunities, offering speakers, activities, and workshops to build resilience and foster wellness. Supported by partners SMUD, CalHope, and Curtis "50 Cent" Jackson's G-Unity Foundation, the event culminated with participants showcasing their innovations at a Kings game.

NINTH ANNUAL DO GOOD SUMMIT

The Kings Foundation hosted the ninth annual Do Good Summit, an occasion for nonprofits to learn more about the foundation's work, priorities and opportunities to partner with the organization. The day drew nearly 200 organizations and included presentations by both the Sacramento and Stockton Kings. The summit is an annual event to kick-off community initiatives and programs, engage with nonprofit leaders and share best practices.

Jr. Kings is committed to developing kids ages 6 to 14 as well-rounded players and works with all skill levels to cultivate respect, sportsmanship and work ethic in addition to mastering the fundamentals of the game. Throughout the season, the team hosted numerous clinics, exposing youth to the best coaches in the region, the most individualized and effective instruction and all the excitement that only an NBA program can offer.

The Kings remained focused on advancing black communities through deep investment in Sacramento's black youth. In the summer of 2024, the Kings led the seventh annual season of Kings and Queens Rise Co-Ed Youth Sports Mentoring League in partnership with The Center at Sierra Health Foundation's Black Child Legacy Campaign and My Brother's Keeper Sacramento. The team hosted a tip-off event presented by CalHOPE and G Unity Foundation at Golden 1 Center. The event featured remarks from Sacramento Kings guard Mason Jones, Kings and Queens Rise Commissioner Kenneth Duncan, and National Alliance on Mental Illness Director Andrew Crotto. The eight-week basketball season featured 24 teams of more than 400 youth from 4th through 10th grade. Kings and Queens Rise offers youth opportunities to engage in inter-neighborhood events throughout the summer. By fostering these positive interactions, the program aims to prevent and combat violence in our communities, creating a safer and more cohesive environment for all involved.

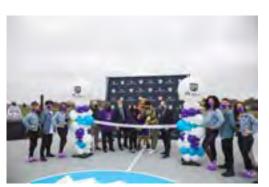

In partnership with Dialpad, the Kings opened the second Huddle Lab, at Futures Explored, a nonprofit focused on supporting individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities, and the third at Boys and Girls Club of Sacramento, Teichert Branch. The Huddle Lab, a technology room for afterschool programs, features computers, software and TVs that allow connectivity via Dialpad's cloud communication services and will be used to assist young people through computer literacy and entrepreneur leadership programs. During each unveiling, Kings President of Business Operations John Rinehart spoke with attendees about the significance of accessible technology and presented a commemorative plaque.

WELLNESS AMPLIFIED

Wellness Amplified, an inspiring initiative aimed to promote health and wellness among youth. The event featured a rejuvenating yoga session led by UPLIFT Youth Foundation and a transformative sound bath provided by Soul Wave Holistics. The event concluded with a vibrant dining experience centered on the benefits of eating balanced and colorful meals facilitated by Last Supper Society Co-Founder and Chief Culinary Officer Byron Hughes. Participants were youth associated with Sisters of Nia, 100 Black Women, Mission Oaks Parks and Recreation and La Familia Counseling Center. These engaging activities provided valuable tools for movement, mindfulness, and healthy eating, contributing to a sense of community, well-being, and personal growth for youth in the Sacramento region.

BASKETBALL COURT REFURBISHMENT

The Sacramento Kings and Kaiser Permanente unveiled two refurbished courts at Mack Road Valley Hi Community Center. These courts mark the 17th community court refurbished by the Kings and the 13th done in partnership with Kaiser Permanente. Originally created by the Kings and Kaiser Permanente in 2014, the two courts have been refurbished and refreshed with a new black and grey color scheme and the Kings fan-favorite script logo.

The Kings remained dedicated to their organization-wide commitment to Lead, Inspire, Flourish and Thrive (LIFT) through volunteerism. Volunteer opportunities included assisting with Season of Doing Good, packing backpacks for Volunteer of America's Operation Backpacks, assisting female-focused nonprofits during Women's History month, participating in Sacramento Pride and mentoring youth through various programs and events.

The Kings partnered with Raley's to host the 22nd annual Season of Doing Good during the 2023 holiday season to invest in the community and spread holiday cheer. Events included an Eat Like a King fall-themed feast at Golden 1 Center, Shop Like a King at a local Bel Air store, Holiday Cheer for local veterans, a Toy Drive with Les Schwab and Purple Bag Project with Crown Royal. Kings players, including De'Aaron Fox, Malik Monk, Harrison Barnes and Domantas Sabonis, brought additional cheer by hosting community events.

KINGPIN CLASSIC

The franchise hosted their fan-favorite Kingpin Classic charity bowling event in partnership with Raley's at the Apex at Red Hawk Resort + Casino. Kings fans bowled and interacted with players and coaches while enjoying entertainment from the Kings Dancers and Slamson. All proceeds from the annual tournament went to the Sacramento Kings Foundation to help organizations in the region continue and extend their youth basketball programs.

FASTBREAK MENTORING

In celebration of National Mentorship Month, the Sacramento Kings partnered with MENTOR California and UC Davis Graduate School of Management to emphasize the importance of mentorship. This initiative includes the Fastbreak Mentoring program, where UC Davis MBA students mentored youth from Improve Your Tomorrow on educational and career pathways. Activities included discussions, arena tours, and interactions with Kings team members, aiming to inspire and empower the next generation.

The Kings, in partnership with NBC Sports, wrapped up the sixth season of Math Hoops, created by Learn Fresh in association with NBA Cares, featuring a basketball board game, mobile app and curriculum with current NBA players that allows students to learn fundamental math skills through the game of basketball. Math Hoops encourages students to develop an appreciation and love for math while growing vital interpersonal skills that will serve them throughout their lives. In 2023, the team facilitated panels with Kings personalities and hosted tournaments and fun activations for more than 7,400 students and 150 educators across the region.

ROOT GARDENS

ROOT Gardens encourages healthy eating and aims to change how communities interact with food by providing access to fresh vegetables, fruits and herbs and participating in food literacy programs. This year, the Kings and Raley's opened their 12th ROOT garden at Valley High School. In addition to the garden, the Kings and Raley's commissioned a mural that embodies the school's core values of community, growth, and education.

HERITAGE AND THEME NIGHTS

Through game night programming and community events, the Sacramento Kings have a long history of uplifting diverse and inclusive organizations throughout the region, working to enhance the lives of the people with whom the franchise engages. This season, the team is celebrating nearly 15 theme nights that celebrate the Sacramento community, including Día de los Muertos, Nativé American Heritage, Lunar New Year, Black History Month, Pride, Holi, Women's Empowerment and HBCU Night. Additionally, the team recognizes local Culture Creators and Hometown Heroes both presented by Crown Royal.

OSCAR ROBERTSON TRIPLE-DOUBLE AWARD

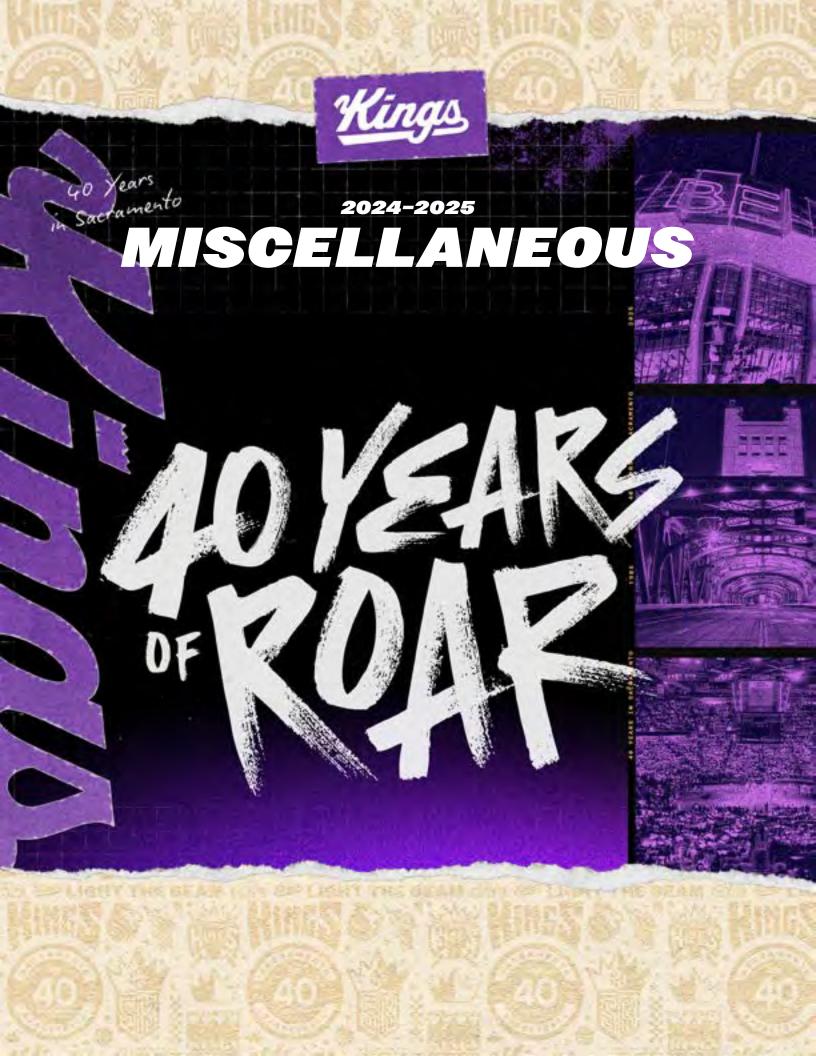

Inaugurated in 2003, the Community Crossover Award, previously the Oscar Robertson Triple-Double Award, is presented each season to a deserving Kings player who excels both on and off the court while significantly contributing to the community.

In the 2023-24 season, Kings guard Malik Monk was awarded the Community Crossover Award presented by Kaiser Permanente for his dedication to ensuring families are well-supported during the holidays. In the fall of 2023, Monk hosted his annual Thanksgiving meal donation in his hometown, providing turkeys and other essentials for families in need. Then, in December, Monk organized a holiday shopping spree at a local Target for single mothers and their children to provide families with gifts, toys and necessities.

Monk's role as a team player is evident in his active engagement in Kings events within the community, such as Eat Like a King, Kingpin Classic, and Season Ticket Member Parties. Monk has served over 200 underserved youth and their families and continues to find ways to give back to his community and Kings fans, further fostering a sense of connection.

GOLDEN 1 CENTER

This year marks the Sacramento Kings ninth season at Golden 1 Center. In 2013, tech entrepreneur and innovator Vivek Ranadivé purchased the Sacramento Kings securing the team's future in California's capital city. As part of the agreement to purchase the team, Vivek guaranteed a new NBA arena for the 2017 season. Not only did the team open a facility one year ahead of schedule, but they constructed the world's most technologically advanced and most sustainable sports and entertainment facility in the world.

Sitting in the heart of downtown Sacramento, Golden 1 Center brings the community together through their favorite interests: sports, music, entertainment, food, beverage and culture. The innovations and achievements of Golden 1 Center regarding technology, sustainability and fan engagement have sparked change in the sports industry and how businesses connect with their communities.

Golden 1 Center is the first indoor sports arena to earn a LEED Platinum Designation from the United States Green Building Council, which recognizes environmentally conscious buildings and organizations at the highest level. It is the first arena in the world to be 100% solar powered and includes "solar days" during the offseason in which the arena operates completely off the grid. Ninety percent of the arena food and beverage is sourced within 150 miles of the venue, preserving freshness and minimizing the impact on the environment by reducing vehicle miles traveled. Thousands of meals from unserved arena food have been redistributed through the venue's donation program, Second That.

The technology infrastructure has redefined the fan experience at Golden 1 Center. It is home to an 84-foot-long scoreboard and a 4K Ultra HD video screen, which has over 700 professional displays and 13,000 square feet of LED video within the screen. Wired with over 1,000 miles of cable power, making it the most advanced network in sports. It holds a 200-gigabit internet connection that powers the venues connectivity with free Wi-Fi throughout the arena, which is 17,000 times faster than your average home Internet connection. And utilizes a one-of-a-kind app that places a "remote control" into the fans' hands by providing guests with access to the arena's enhanced network with real-time information and mobile ordering.

On March 25, 2018, Golden 1 Center preserved its innovative and inclusive spirit by pairing up with Kulture City and medical professionals to create California's first sensory room in a sports venue, which opened during the Kings annual autism awareness game. Located on the Event Level of the arena, the room features calming bubbles and texturized walls, specialized furniture and soothing sounds for a guieter and more secure environment. The room is designed to provide a more comfortable experience for guests who may have challenges with sensory regulation. Golden 1 Center is also equipped with special sensory kits at the Guest Services Station in sections 109 and 207 while nearly 400 staff members have been trained to assist guests who may need help with sensory needs

From the beginning of the project, the venue was designed to be "bigger than basketball." Golden 1 Center has revitalized downtown Sacramento, attracting businesses, restaurants and hotels, and bringing in thousands of visitors for events, concerts and sports games. Since its groundbreaking nearly ten years ago, this iconic venue has propelled the region's economic advancement, fostering growth and development in surrounding communities with an estimated investment of over $7 billion in the central city.

Golden 1 Center is home to $10 million in public-art including the only publicly-owned, permanently-displayed work by 21st Century icon Jeff Koons. Through its years of operation, the arena has changed the city's culture and entertainment calendar with hundreds of community events and world-class performers each including J. Cole, Kendrick Lamar, Post Malone, Kane Brown, Paul McCartney, Bruno Mars, Bad Bunny, Jelly Roll, Justin Timberlake, Mana, Tom Petty, Janet Jackson, Elton John, and Carrie Underwood.

For all its innovations, it has earned the 2017 Sports Business Journal Facility of the Year award and over 30 other awards and accolades highlighting its beautiful design, technological advancements, environmental innovations, and premium accommodations.

Downtown Commons (DOCO)

Golden 1 Center sits adjacent to Downtown Commons (DOCO) – Sacramento's lifestyle and entertainment district.

Developed by the Sacramento Kings, the $1 billion investment to enhance Sacramento's downtown features a 1.8 million square foot plaza filled with the region's best dining, hotel and entertainment options. Public art sprinkles the 3-acre plaza which wraps the arena and extends through the lobby of the Kimpton Sawyer hotel.

The Sawyer, a one-of-one hotel managed by Kimpton, brings guests into the heart of the city's entertainment district. It overlooks Golden 1 Center, while embracing the region's affinity for nature and the outdoors through spaces that feature organic textures, natural patterns, and abundant open-air areas with views to the Sierra, the State Capitol and one of Sacramento's iconic bridges. Go no further than the third-floor bar and lounge, The Revival, perched above the plaza, to experience locally inspired food, craft cocktails and beer, and local wines.

At the top of the hotel sit 45 luxury residences that have sparked a renaissance in Sacramento's real estate market. The Residences at the Sawyer are Sacramento's first fully-amenitized luxury condominiums featuring a private residents' lounge, outdoor pool and lounge, fitness center, 24-hour concierge, residential doorman, valet and à la carte hotel services.
